

Businesses to be recognised as Innovation Awards return for 2024

Businesses across the districts are set to be recognised for their fresh thinking and new ideas, as Babergh and Mid Suffolk District Councils' Innovation Awards return this autumn.

Former council offices to go on the market to save town centre regeneration plans

Mid Suffolk District Council's former offices in Needham Market are to go on the market in order to deliver the regeneration plans and funds for reinvestment back into council housing.

Mid Suffolk councillor Austin Davies resigns

A by-election is set to take place in the Thurston ward on 24 September.

Ground-breaking ceremony at Gateway 14 for eco-friendly Bauder

The latest development at state-of-the-art business, innovation and logistics park is under way.

Work to start on new sports facilities in Stowmarket

Work starts this week on the first part of a multi-million pound investment in exciting new sports facilities in Stowmarket

Councils' objection to National Grid's Norwich to Tilbury pylon proposals

Babergh and Mid Suffolk District Councils have now published their full response to National Grid's Norwich to Tilbury consultation.

Babergh and Mid Suffolk join bid to boost local tourism

Suffolk Public Sectors Leaders group – which includes Babergh and Mid Suffolk District Councils – has agreed to a five-year funding programme to help enhance tourism across the region.

Councils to host Call for land summit in September

Councils are putting landowners in touch with organisations that can help them improve their land for wildlife and nature.

Districts to benefit from new electric vehicle scheme

Residents in Babergh and Mid Suffolk are set to benefit from a new electric vehicle initiative.

Solar Together launches in Suffolk - offering residents affordable renewable energy sources

Suffolk residents will boost local renewable energy generation, cut carbon emissions, and save on energy bills with a community-led solar panel initiative.